

Session 19

Session 19- After waking up from being drunk the night before, we head out to find a druid to help cure Blorg seeing the moth people around, We ask a guard who points us towards a large tree where the druids live, We talk to one druid named Ernest, who points us towards the High Druid, Balminor, an elf. Balminor agrees to cure Blorg for free. | also ask him about the celestial body in the sky, but he doesn't know anything about it. We head to the Inn to ask about finding jobs, but nothing is there, We ask a guard, who points us towards the Master Huntsman, Haywood. Gon, Blorg, and I run a competition to get the biggest deer for bragging rights to sell to Haywood. Gon does find the biggest buck, but fails to kill it. find a smaller deer and Blorg gets the next biggest, winning the competition, We sell most of the meat and fur to the Huntsman, getting a lot more gold than what | am used to, leading me to think of ideas. We take some of the meat with us to cook with, deciding to grab vegetables, bread, cheese, and fruit from the market. While we shop, Alina wakes up and wanders around, finding the draconian refugee that took her blood before. He tells her that her blood showed sparkly dust, but doesn't know much else, She gives him more of her blood to test. After more wandering around, Alina manages to find Gon and Blorg after | sent them to find her, while Velma and I returned home. Blorg takes over cooking and makes a wonderful stew. During the meal, | bring up the idea of us staying in Thaisha for a while, in order to get money to buy a new boat to sail to nearby islands to find Zira's Trickster card, and to train Velma on how to sail a ship. The rest of the group agrees. The next day, Alina starts up a fortune telling business in the poorer parts of the city. Velma trains and works with a group of sailors. | talk with a woodworker, who agrees to sell the boat that our knight friends had been using for 50 gold. | pay down five gold and recruit Blorg and Gon to help me carry the old fisherman boat from Wealstowatch back to Thaisha, this takes a week, but it brings down the payment to 45 gold in total. During that week, Alina earned 100 copper. That next night, we hear commotion, as the Dracan Empire
