

Session 8

Session 8 - We spend a week earning money in Wealstowatch so we can buy supplies and give 2 gold to Darryl the fisherman, The knights leave halfway through, and say they will have someone meet us when we arrive in the Kingdom of Thaisha. After the week is over, we gather supplies and meet with Darryl. We sadly have to leave Desmond and the cart behind with Lynette and Erik, who will watch over him while we are away. We spend a few days on the river before we make it out to sea, Almost immediately, Velma sees a storm approaching, so the next day, we head for the coastline. We anchor the boat down and find some caves in the side of a cliff face. With Gon on watch, we all get captured by goblins, who take our stuff and tie us up. Gon manages to trick the goblins while Velma wildshapes into a rat, freeing Gon and Blorg. A fight ensues, leading to the death of Darryl. We manage to get our stuff back and find the exit. Gon and Velma have a bit of a fight over Gon being insensitive, The next day, we bury Darryl at sea and spend the rest of our time at sea trying to keep the boat afloat. We finally manage to find a dock in Thaisha and hide the boat. As we walk, we see a knight on a gryphon fly over us and land, approaching us.
